

Most North Carolinians from households making $80,000 or less will qualify for the Next NC Scholarship.

It's enough money to earn a tuition-free degree.

Qualifying students attending community college will receive at least $3,000 per year. That covers tuition and fees at all 58 NC community colleges.

Want to go to a four-year university? You get a minimum of $5,000 per year, which pays for more than half, if not all, of tuition and fees at any of the 16 public universities in the state. You can use it for books, food, and housing as well.

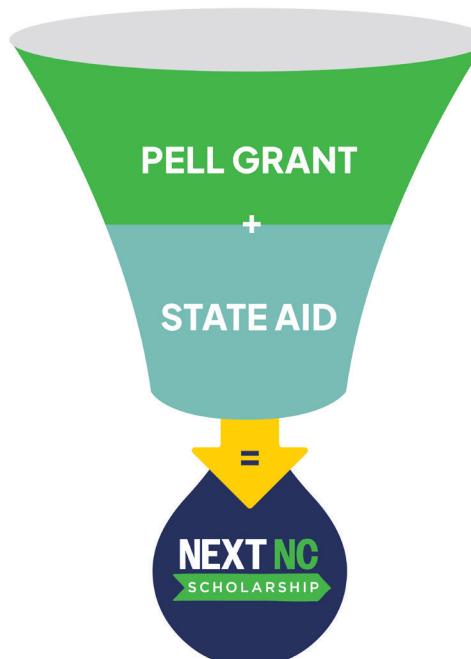

Applying is simple.

Just submit the FAFSA form. If you're eligible, you'll receive the Next NC Scholarship.

The Next NC Scholarship combines the federal Pell grant with the state-funded financial aid program to form a simplified and predictable scholarship award that is easier to understand, so a greater number of North Carolinians can pursue a degree.

With the help of the Next NC Scholarship, paying for college just got more manageable.

To receive the Next NC Scholarship, you must be:

- 1 A North Carolina resident who is eligible for in-state tuition
- 2 A high school graduate (high school equivalency completers are eligible)
- 3 From a household with an annual Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) of $80,000 or less
- 4 Enrolled in an eligible undergraduate curriculum program
- 5 Taking at least 6 credit hours per semester (part-time students will receive a partial award)
- 6 Meeting the Satisfactory Academic Progress standards of the college you plan to attend
- 7 A student who has completed the FAFSA with a resulting Student Aid Index (SAI) at or below 7,500 (once complete, the financial aid office at the college/university you plan to attend will determine and confirm eligibility)

COLLEGE JUST GOT WAY MORE AFFORDABLE

FOR MANY NORTH CAROLINIANS

Interested in private college?

There is a need-based scholarship for students attending a private college too. Go to www.CFNC.org/privateNBS for more information.

Find out if you qualify for the Next NC Scholarship that doesn't have to be paid back. All it takes is one simple step: Fill out the FAFSA, and you are on your way.

Priority filing dates

UNC Institutions: June 1

NC Community Colleges: August 15

*Each institution may have its own earlier filing date, so be sure to check the dates for the colleges and universities that you're interested in.
